The committee on elections named the judges and voting precincts for the refunding loan ordinance election, Saturday, November 27. The list was as published in yesterday's Intelligencer, the vacancies in the second precinct, Second ward, being filled by naming as judges—A. B. Hill, S. S. Bolan, T. Donohoe; and for the Fourth ward—George Hall, Philip Bandi and Ferdinand Hill.

The Democratic members in the second branch took a brush at the report of the elections committee. Mr. Hoe, seconded by Mr. Ahl, moved to lay it on the table. Messrs. Gartley, Paul and Mehan voted that way, but fifteen votes were recorded otherwise. Then the Democrats voted against accepting the committee's report, but it was adopted by the same vote, 15 to 5.

The committee on petitions and resolutions recommended grant of 50¢ fee house licenses to Fleischman Bros., Simon D. Cline and J. B. Fitzgerald; granted.

The supplementary ordinance, providing for an additional appropriation of $1,000 to be divided among the departments, was adopted unanimously. The finance committee reported as vacant the positions of loan commissioners for the first and second series Main street bridge loans. These positions were held by Messrs. Frank B. Jepson and J. Elwood Hughes, both having left the city some time ago. A joint session of both branches elected new commissioners. The votes were as follows:

First series, two to be elected—J. A. Miller, 24; John Bodley, 22; R. S. Irwin, 8; Miller and Bodley elected.

Second series, two to be elected—Howard Hazlett, 25; J. A. Jefferson, 21; J. A. Miller, 7; Hazlett and Jefferson elected.

A resolution offered by Mr. Ahl that all loan commissioners make their reports at the next meeting of council was adopted.

Mr. Travis offered a resolution providing for new curb on Thirty-fifth street, between Market and Chapline; referred to committee on streets, alleys and grades.

Thomas C. Wilson asked for ferry landing privileges at upper end of wharf, and on Ohio street, for landing of a gasoline yacht. His petition was referred to the committee on wharves, by a vote of 11 to 8.

The committee on streets, alleys and grades recommended the city's sharing part of expense in removing a wall at Market and Eighth streets; adopted. Two transfers of lots at Peninsula cemetery were recommended by second branch, but first branch voted to refer the matter to the committee on cemeteries. A conference committee of both branches decided to refer to this committee.

The first branch concurred in all other business coming across the hall. The joint committee appointed at last meeting reported in this chamber, recommending that no free gas be given to either the St. Alphonsus home or Florence Crittenden home. The first branch took this view of it, hence these institutions won't get free gas.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

Wm. Deercroft Killed on the B. & O. Near Point Mills.

William Deercroft, a farm hand, who lived at Point Mills, out the pike, was killed Monday night about a mile east of Point Mills, by being struck by a Baltimore & Ohio engine. His death was not discovered until early yesterday morning, the body being found about twenty-five feet away from the railroad track, whence it had rolled down the embankment.

Coroner Schultze was notified yesterday morning about 11 o'clock, and shortly after he drove out to the scene. The wife of the deceased testified that the last time she had seen her husband was about 4 o'clock on Monday afternoon, when he gave her part of his wages, received from Davis, a contractor, for whom he worked. How he met his death is not known, but it is supposed he attempted to cross the track that evening and was struck by a train. He leaves a wife and three children in destitute circumstances, and on account of this fact Coroner Schultze ordered the remains removed to Thornburg's undertaking establishment, where, after getting all information possible, he rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts. The engine struck him in the head, knocking him off the track, and the shock sent him down the embankment to where he was found yesterday morning. Part of his head was torn open and the brains had oozed out.

Deercroft, it is said, had been drinking that evening. He was in his forty-first year. He will be buried at West Alexander.

"CUBA AND THE CUBANS."

The Subject of Miss Buckbee's Lecture at the Y. M. C. A. Last Night.

The second lecture of the Y. M. C. A. series, was given last evening by Miss Annie Buckbee, supervisor of the model department of the Pennsylvania State Normal School, at California, Pa. Her subject was "Cuba and the Cubans," and it was illustrated by 100 fine stereopticon views. Miss Buckbee is a fine speaker and she took her hearers from our own fair land amid the orange groves of Florida, across the narrow strip that separates it from Cuba, entering at the harbor of Havana, where she described how the government of Spain takes such pains to carefully inspect everything that enters the chief port of that fair Isle.

Miss Buckbee speaks from the experience of a two years' sojourn in Cuba, as a teacher in some of the first families of the island, and her descriptions of what she saw of the manners and customs of the people were interesting in the extreme, while the pictures thrown onto the canvases are far above the average views so often shown in illustrated lectures.

Her lecture closes with an appeal for this great land of our to help the brave Cubans in every way possible. In this she had the sympathy of the large audience, as was evidenced by the liberal applause accorded her when she spoke of the heroic efforts of this brave people in their struggle for freedom.

Miss Buckbee is favorably known in Wheeling, as she was one of the instructors at the city teachers' institute, held the last week in August.

The next lecture of the course will be given on the evening of December 14th, by Colonel Joseph H. Bauman, on "A Yankee in Spain," and it will doubtless be one of the best of the course.
